I am still waiting for a response at a time when multiple COSCTO locations in Alberta have outbreaks and are still fully open. Their operating cleaning principles go against AHS standards and yet despite these things, they are still open. Care Homes or small business would be closed immediately for such breaches or much less outbreak situations.

Why is that? Is this related to the deliberate and wilful delays in my complaint? Is the GoA and its subsidiary offices working with Costco and other big box establishments to deliberately or negligently discriminate against the disabled and small businesses alike?

Costco, Grande Prairie

Costco, Sherwood Park

Costco (Winterburn Road), Edmonton

Costco Heritage Gate, Calgary

To ALL included. Please respond by the end of Friday May 14th, 2021

Please see below (and the original file). For the additional people on this list who know me and are supposed to also represent the people of Alberta, please note this is confidential information.

Another two and a half weeks have gone by with no contact and approaching seven months in a process that is supposed to take 60 days. I know other complaints have been dealt with before mine. Are you hoping I will be dead before handling this complaint?

Good morning,

This complaint was filed on November 17th, 2020 and accepted December 8th, 2020. Costco was provided additional time to respond (despite having a large legal team and having assumed to have fully reviewed their original decision to prevent disabled people access starting November 16th, 2020). Costco responded with a primarily ad hominem attack on February 8th, 2021, which was provided to me on February 11th, 2021 along with a notification that a conciliation officer would be assigned soon and would be in touch. I responded to that and the letter from your office for more information on February 17th, 2021.

It is now April 22nd, 2021 and coming up to a full 6 months since the complaint was filed. These delays are having a detrimental impact to my overall health and don't appear to be inline with the AHRC process. Just when does the timeline here start? "The Commission also imposes a 60-day period, which is a reasonable amount of time to exchange information and meet amongst the parties to discuss resolving the complaint".

Looking forward to a timely response.

Thank you.

David

Afternoon,

Can I get an update on this file please. On February 10th I was informed “No further information from us will be provided until this complaint is assigned to an Officer. The Officer will write to you when the matter is assigned.”. I did respond with the clarifying information requested and am yet to receive an update. I can confirm that Costco has not made “a with prejudice settlement offer to the Complainant” as per that letter I received from your office.

Many thanks,

David
